Village Litmanova in Slovakia is at a distance of 11 kilometers from the town of Stara Lubovna. This village inhabited by only a few hundred families is almost entirely Greek (Byzantine) Catholic. They are in full communion with the Pope in Rome and the Catholic Church. Since the 5th August 1990 until the 6th August 1995 on the mountain Zvir, less than 4 kilometers from the village, Our Lady kept appearing to two young girls – Ivetka Korcakova and Katka Ceselkova. Apparitions took place in a hay-barn, in a small room (2,8 x 4 m). Girls received visits and messages from the Blessed Mother on every first Sunday of the month, which falls after the first Friday. Before the apparition both girls prayed at first, then Holy Virgin usually came like from the fog and she would generally sit on a narrow wooden bench at the wall. Apparitions on the mountain were accompanied by thousands pilgrims. About 100 meters from the hay-barn Holy Virgin blessed a well and she recommended to drink from this spring. According to testimonies of many witnesses the whole row of miracle recoveries apparently occurred.
